New Haven, Conn., Nov. 22, 1895. The subscriber, on behalf of the asy um and in the name of all its inmates. takes pleasure in gratefully acknowl edging the generous contributions made Thursday to its little ones.

The kindness, sympathy and charity which yesterday secured for the asylum donations of cash amounting to $3.500 and of useful articles to the value of $1,000, will always be held in pleasurable remembrance.

In return for all kindnesses shown them, the little orphan boys and girls of St. Francis asylum hope that the good people of this city will accept once more their warmest thanks.

They also tender to all their kind friends, in exchange for gifts received, he only present they can give, the only thing, as St. Athanasius says, the orphans possess, namely, "the wealth of their poverty," meaning, when interpreted, not only their affections, but also their prayers, which, please God, "the Father of the orphans," may ever bring a blessing on all their true friends and benefactors.
